LION ONE METALS LIMITED REMOVAL FROM ASX OFFICIAL LIST

North Vancouver, B.C., August 4, 2024 - Lion One Metals Limited (TSX-V: LIO) (OTCQX: LOMLF) (ASX: LLO) (Lion One or the Company) announces that pursuant to Listing Rule 17.12, Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) has advised the Company that it will be removed from the official list of the ASX pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 17.12 (Delisting). The Company's CHESS Depositary Interests (CDIs) are currently suspended from trading on ASX.

The Company notes that a voluntary delisting application was submitted to ASX on June 24, 2024.

Following the Company's Delisting, the Company's common shares (Shares) will continue to be traded on the TSX Venture Exchange (TSX-V) under the trading symbol LIO and on the OTCQX under the trading symbol LOMLF.

Reasons for Delisting from the ASX

Lion One sought a voluntary delisting from the ASX due to the ongoing low frequency of trading, low volumes traded and limited index inclusion of CDIs traded on ASX as compared to that of the TSX-V. The percentage of CDIs held on the Australian CDI register is approximately 5.89% of the Company's total issued share capital as at July 31, 2024.

The Company believes that the financial, administrative and compliance obligations and costs associated with maintaining an ASX listing are no longer in the best interests of its shareholders as a whole.

The Company acknowledges ASX's decision to remove Lion One from the official list pursuant to Listing Rule 17.12, despite the Company's request for a voluntary delisting.

Indicative Timetable

The timetable for the Delisting is:

Wednesday, 14 August 2024	Issuance Date of the Shares in the Direct Registration System (DRS) (i.e. uncertificated) to the former CDI holders.
Friday, 16 August 2024	Despatch of the DRS advices.

All dates in this announcement refer to Sydney time. These dates are indicative only and subject to change by the Company or ASX. The Company will announce any amendment made to the indicative dates.

Outcome applicable to CDI holders upon Delisting

In summary, due to the Company being removed from the Official List, CDI Holders will have all their CDIs automatically converted, on a 1:1 basis, into Shares listed on the TSX-V registered directly in their own name in book-entry form (i.e. uncertificated) on the Canadian share register in DRS. DRS is the equivalent of holding Shares in issuer sponsored form in Australia and evidenced by a DRS advice, posted to their registered address.

Trading Shares on the TSX-V

Securityholders can only trade Shares on the TSX-V if they are held through the Canadian Central Securities Depository (CDS). As the Shares, resulting from the automatic conversion, will be registered directly in the former CDI holder's own name in book-entry form in DRS on the Canadian share register, the holder will not be able to trade their Shares on the TSX-V without first making independent arrangements with a broker in Canada (or an Australian broker that has a relationship with a financial institution in Canada) who can (i) facilitate the electronic deposit of the Shares into CDS and (ii) trade them on the TSX-V.

If holders do not have a broker, or their usual Australian broker cannot assist them, visit www.asx.com.au, click 'Investors', then scroll down to click 'learn more' next to the 'Find a broker or adviser' heading for information that may assist with finding a suitable broker.

Consequences of Delisting

The main consequence of the Company's Delisting for CDI holders is that, from the time the Delisting takes effect, CDIs will no longer be quoted or traded on ASX.

If CDI holders have any questions about the Delisting process, they can contact Computershare on 1300 850 505 (within Australia) or +61 3 9415 4000 (outside Australia) between 8:30am and 5:00pm (Australian Eastern Standard Time).
